FELL TWELVE FEET AND WAS KILLED.

John Krebs, a Porter, Stepped Backward Into Elevator Shaft at Leonori Warehouse.

Through an accidental fall of not more than twelve feet down an elevator shaft John Krebs, a porter living at No. 229 Randolph street, met his death in the Leonori warehouse at No. 1217 Olive street yesterday afternoon. His neck was broken and death afternoon. His neck was broken and death was practically instantaneous.

The accident occurred shortly after 2 o'clock. Krebs was on the first floor and had opened the door of the gate to swait the elevator cage then at one of the upper floors. As he turned for an instant to move an article of furniture, he moved backwards toward the shart. He exidently miscalculated the distance, for he stepped into space. He fell headlong to the basement, lighting on his neck and shoulders, sustaining a gash over the right temple.

Walker Carrall, a driver employed by the firm, saw Kross as he fell and ran to his assistance. Krebs seemed partly conscious for an instant, but then became senseless, and was picked up by Carroll and Charles Walker & Y. ### PAUNCEFOTE DEFINES ENGLAND'S POSITION

Said to Have Told Secretary Hay That Canal Treaty Amendments Will Not Be Accepted.

NO DAY YET SET FOR A VOTE.

Senator Ledge Made Another Effort to Secure an Agreement, but It Was Blocked by Senator Money.

Washington, Dec. 15.-Around the Hay-Pauncefote treaty a dense fog has risen. The statement is made positively by friends of the administration and Secretary Hay that Great Britain will not accept the treaty as now amended, but will consider the Clayton-Bulwer treaty in full force and effect. On the other hand, Senators who are in favor of the amended treaty state positively that the amended treaty will be ecceptable to Great Britain. Lord Fauncefole, British Ambassador, called at the State Department by appointment te-day and conferred with Secretary Hay relative to the action of the Senate in connection with the treaty. Lord Pauncefore was evidently acting under instructions from his Government. It is reported that he gave Secretary Hay to understand clearly that, while Lord Salisbury is willing to meet the United States half way, he cannot be expected to make the concessions the Senate is demanding.

It also developed that the British Govern-ment might have been willing to accept the treaty if amended only by the Davis pro-vision, but is unwilling to comply with the further amendments.

Great Britain, it is said, fully recognizes that the United States is not signatory to the declaration made in Berlin in 1871, that treaties cannot be abrogated except with the consent of the contracting parties, and that by act of Congress it may formally abrogate the 'Clayton-Bulwer convention; but it is disposed to hold the United States to this convention, on "moral grounds," and will probably so declars in its answer to the request of the Secretary of State for acceptance of the amendments adopted by the Senata when he presents them for action. England . Position.

by the Senate when he presents them for action.

Senator Lodge, in charge of the treaty, today, made another effort in executive session of the Senate to get a day set for a final vote on the treaty and the amendments to it which have been suggested by the various Senators, and while he did had succeed, he received considerable encouragement in that direction.

The proceedings to-day consisted of a brief speech by Senator Teller, in which he suggested the substitution of the word "abrogate" for the word "supercede" in the first of the amendments reported yesterday by the Committee on Foreign Relations, the effect being to declare the Clayton-Bulwer treaty abrogated in express terms. He then made an argument in support of this suggestion, contending that any matten has a right to abrogate a treaty entered into with another nation. He said that if the committee thought the old treaty ought to be abrogated, that word should be used.

When Mr. Teller concluded Mr. Lodge continued his efforts to get a time fixed for a vote.

When Mr. Teller concluded Mr. Lodge continued his efforts to get a time fixed for a vote.

Senator Morgan stated that if a time should be named for a vote on the treaty, he would also insist that there should be an understanding that a vote be taken on the Niearaguan Canal question at the same time. However, Mr. Lodge, after an intermission, renewed his suggestion for fixing a time. Senator Morgan said nothing further about a vore on the canal bill.

Money Blocks Agreement.

Senator Alien objected outright to the first preparation for a vote upon the treaty at a time to be named, and when Senator Aldrich asked if a vote could not be had to-day on some amendments to the treaty Senator Money objected. He said that, being the only member of the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations who opposed the treaty, he felt that he was entitled to ample time to state his objections, and stated that he meant to state these office. treaty, he felt that he was entitled to ample time to state his objections, and stated that he meant to state them if it became necessary to occupy the entire time between today and the date fixed for the Christmas adjournment. He said that if there was an effort to drive him he would undertake to occupy all this time.

At this point Senator Allison suggested the absence of a quorum, and the roll was called. A quorum appearing, Senator Lindway moved to adjourn, but the motion failed by a vote of 29 to 39.

After this little flurry there was a zeneral consultation among individual Senators, and when, on motion of Senator Lodge, the Senate adjourned a lew minutes later, there was a good deal better feeling than had previously existed.

After the session, Senator Lodge expressed himself as confident of securing an agreement to vote before the holiday adjournment.

Senator Mason gave notice of the following amendment, which he said he would offer on Monday next, when he would address the Senate on the subject:
"If the Government of the United States shall construct, at its own expense, the said canal, then nothing herein contained shall prevent the United States from protecting said canal in any way it may deem best said canal in any way it may deem best

ACCUSED OF PURSE-SNATCHING.

William Simon Is Held at Central Police Station.

William Simon is locked up at the Central district Police Station on a charge of William Simon is locked up at the Central District Police Station on a charge of snatching a purse.

Mabel Floor of No. 513 South Twenty-third street and Laura Saville of No. 2110 North Twenty-first street are the prosecuting witnesses, who are employed at No. 200 South Commercial street. They were walking west in Gratiot street approaching Broadway shortly after 6 o'clock Friday evening when a young man clad in rough clothes appeared in front of them and seized a purse in the hand of Miss Floor. She struggled to hold it, but he successed in jerking it away Miss Saville raised her umbrella to strike him, but he evaded the blow and ran away.

Several pedestrains who had witnessed the robbery started in pursuit. Policeman Doran of the Central District joined in the pursuit, overtaking Simon after running two blocks. On the run the purse was thrown into the street, where it was afterwards picked up. It contained only a small amount of cash, but was especially valuable to Miss Floor because it held a gold locket presented to her by her mother and her sweetheart's picture.

The girls positively identified the prisoner and yesterday swore out a warrant against him charging petit larceny.
